But no one to call her own

F#m7 Dma9
This lowly stranger could ne - ver disown

E
I said, "Let me come with you

We don't have to be alone"

I said, "Let me come with you
A/C# D

I will make your home my home"

Home, I am moving on
E Esus A/E D A
Hope when all hope seemed gone

Where you are is where I be - long
F#m7 E/G# D
Our home so far from home

$\frac{2}{4}$  D  $\frac{4}{4}$  A
There at the edges

Just a little grace to glean
F#m7

He turned His head then
Dma9

I found everything

He said, "Come with me, You don't have to be alone"
